[1] All the Young Dudes. Vol. 1, No. 6. (Perhaps June 1976).

Latzoni, Nick (editor). Lower Third Enterprise. Clifton, NJ: no date, perhaps 1976. Somewhat glossy paper, photo illustrated, covers. 15 by 11 inches. 20 pp. including covers. Apparent first issue of this fanzine with confusing volume numbering (based on what little could be found on this zine, it appears it was issued June 1976, vol. 1, no. 6). Contains black and white photos (color cover face shot of Joey Ramone), no text, providing images of The Ramones, Blondie, New York Dolls, Television, Wayne County, Talking Heads, Heartbreakers, Tuff Darts, The Fast and the Miami. Photos by Nick Latzoni, Rick Jones, Mick Benson, Brad O'conner and Patti Young. Despite lack of text, the photos provide raw imagery that captures the then young punk scene. VERY GOOD condition. Horizontal fold crease present. Very minor toning. $225.00

[2] *Skum 4.

Jay, Mark (editor); Badger, Rick et al. Mark Jay, Publisher. Presumed Camden Town/London. No date, circa 1976-77. Single stapled zine, with a yellow orange front cover bearing a photo of Sid Vicious. 11  $\frac{3}{4}$  by 8  $\frac{1}{4}$  inches. 10 pp. Black and white poorly reproduced photos and images throughout. Issue four of this short lived fanzine, founded by Mark Jay and initially taking inspiration from Sniffin' Glue. According to Jay, the zine was started to interview the Clash, but when they didn't show up,

Sid Vicious did, with his band Flowers of Romance and the first issue ended up containing an interview with Vicious. Jay became better known for his design of the “Sex Pistols So Far” Poster. This issue primarily photos, with a little text, including coverage of Chelsea and random musings on other topics. GOOD condition. Mostly minor foxing along the top edge of the front and back, with an ink M on the rear cover. Very minor scattered foxing along the edges of the interior. Minor curling along the corners. A few tiny staple holes at the top left corner. $150.00

[7] Temporary Hoarding No. 3. Carnival Issue.

Toothpaste, Lucy et al. Rock Against Racism, Publisher. London: 1977. Single sheet, 34 by 24  $\frac{3}{4}$  inches, folded into 12  $\frac{1}{4}$  by 8  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch panels. Third issue of this “occasional zine-style paper,” that “focused on RAR gigs and regional political issues,” (Poynor, pp. 102). This issue with a photo collage of Rocks Against Racism march at Lewisham on the 13th of August, 1977, as well a piece on Elvis (Presley). When unfolded, one side becomes a full page poster titled "A Year Under Heavy Manners," presenting a photo collage in red and black of various protests. GOOD condition. Moderate toning and moderate to heavy wrinkling/creasing to the paper. Some soiling and minor staining. \$150.00

[8] Shews No. 1. Part of London's New Wave.

Various authors. Shews Magazine, Publisher. London: no date (1977). Side stapled zine. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 16 pp., including covers. Black and white photos and artwork throughout. First issue of this London based fanzine, edited by Pete "Peekay" and Piers "Plucky," and covering the punk and new wave scene in and around London. This includes an interview with the Stranglers, a photo collage centerfold of the Damned, as well as commentary on punk/new wave events and shows.

Leaflet laid in advertising Chinese Rocks. GOOD condition. Minor toning. Upper rear cover creased and wrinkled at the corner, with minor tearing. Price crossed out in blue ink, with new price written in, on the front cover. $75.00

[9] Shews No. 2. Part of London's New Wave.

Various authors. Shews Magazine, Publisher. London: no date (1977). Side stapled zine. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 16 pp., including covers. Black and white photos and artwork throughout. Second issue of Shews, with an interview with Blondie, a photo collage centerfold of the Sex Pistols, as well as commentary on punk/new wave record releases, events and shows. Leaflet laid in advertising Chinese Rocks. VERY GOOD condition. Minor toning. $75.00

[10] Zone V. Fanzine/Photozine. No. 2

Carroll, Pat; Vee, Tesco; Liu, Jon (contributors); Saah, Jim (editor and photographer). Jim Saah, presumed publisher. Wheaton, MD: no date, perhaps late 1983, early 1984. 40 pp., including covers. Washington, DC area punk fanzine issued by Jim Saah, a photographer from the DC area who documented the local scene, and whose work was featured in a documentary about the DC scene, Salad Days. This zine focuses primarily on hardcore punk acts local to the area, but with some national bands. Many photos of bands such as Mission of Burma, J.F.A., Suicidal Tendencies, Second Wind, Big Boys, Necros, Youth Brigade, G.B.H., Black Market Baby, X and others. With an interview with members of X. VERY GOOD condition. Light soiling and toning. $125.00

[11] Subterranean Pop. Sub/Pop 2.

Pavitt, Bruce. Lost Music Network, Publisher. Olympia, WA: 1980.
Illustrated wraps. 28 pp. 8 ½ by 7 inches. Clip art throughout. Second issue of this music fanzine, the first of which to be shortened to Sub

Pop (from Subterranean Pop), dedicated to underground, indie music. This endeavor would eventually lead to the establishment of the Sub Pop record label that signed acts such as Nirvana, Mudhoney and others related to the Grunge music genre, becoming a huge influence in rock music. Bruce Pavitt established Subterranean (Sub) Pop while a student at Evergreen College in Olympia. This particular issue is contains short blurbs on various indie, punk and other records and bands, divided into geographic areas, including the East Coast, Cleveland, Chicago, San Francisco, Texas, Seattle etc. VERY GOOD condition. Minor browning to the covers, with light soiling. Minor scuffing along the extremities. Small circular orange sticker on the inside front cover. Triggs p 111-115. $200.00

[12] New Order. Rock 'n' Roll Resurrection! #1.

Marshall, James; Mascaro, R. New Order, Publisher. Fort Lauderdale, FL: no date, presumed 1977. Black and white photo illustrated wraps. 8 ½ by 11 inches. 16 pp. Two loose sheets laid in: one a black and white photo with a short typed letter on the reverse to an Yvon, by Jim (James) Marshall, signed in pencil; the other reprints an article from the Yipster Times by Patti Smith on the word fuck. Black and white photos throughout. First issue of this fanzine from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, conceived of as a way to “fill the gaps in rock ‘n’ roll information and criticism left wide by the major publications.” This issue with a lengthy interviews with Patti Smith and her group, and Richard Hell. VERY GOOD condition. Minor toning, mostly along the extremities. Light wrinkling and curling. $100.00

Smith, Patti; Hell, Richard; Marshall, James; Mascaro, R. New Order, Publisher. Fort Lauderdale, FL: 1977. Black and white photo illustrated wraps. 8 ½ by 11 inches. 27 pp. Black and white photos throughout. Second issue, with a poem by Patti Smith and Richard Hell, coverage of the Ramones, Cramps, Damned and others. A few photos by Nick Latzoni, (of All the Young Dudes zine). GOOD condition. Moderate foxing, mostly to the rear cover. Light wrinkling, creasing and curling along the extremities. $80.00

[14] Here's The Sex Pistols.

Sinclair, Paul. Cosmic Dancer Publications. Kent, UK: 1979. Side stapled wraps. 8 ¼ by 5 ¾ inches. 40 pp. Black and white reproduced photos throughout. A zine devoted to the Sex Pistols, primarily a compilation of newspaper and magazine clippings/articles on the Sex Pistols, interspersed with Sinclair's commentary on the various songs by the group, as well as a discography. GOOD condition. Minor drip/dampstain to the front cover, with a faint dampstain along the upper rear edge. Minor toning, soiling and wrinkling. $100.00

[15] Allied Propaganda. Issue 3.

(Turpin) Mick and Ray, authors. Allied Propaganda, Publisher. Northolt, UK: no date, perhaps 1979. Roughly 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. Side stapled. 34 pp., including covers. Clip art, collage and reproduced black and white photos throughout. Issue three of this British fanzine published from 1979 to 1981, using collage and varying typographic formats to present a visually appealing review of various punk and new wave acts. Several pages devoted to the Damned, with news of Killing Joke, the Cure, the Clash and many others. VERY GOOD+ condition. Minor toning. Slight curling along the top edge. $60.00

[16] Kid's Stuff Eight.

Morrissey (Steve) et al. Kid's Stuff, Publisher. Surrey, UK: no date, circa 1978. Single stapled zine. Approximately 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 11 leaves, printed on single sides only. Black and white photos throughout.

Relying on photos and clipped/assembled text, this fanzine from the Surrey, UK area, often reported on the Manchester punk/new wave scene. This issue notable for a piece by Morrissey (of The Smiths fame) on the New York Dolls. Morrissey cites his writings in Kid's Stuff as the vehicle through which he met his idol, Patti Smith, a meeting which left him, perhaps predictably, disappointed (see Rogan, "Morrissey and Marr"). Also present in this issue are photos of Siouxsie and the Banshees, Crime and others, with disjointed text interspersed throughout. GOOD+ condition. Corners bumped, creased and wrinkled. Minor toning and a hint of soiling. Light creasing along the extremities. (Triggs, pp. 66). $125.00

[17] Grinding Halt. Number 3.

Captain Callous; Eddie Snide; Pig Ignorant. Grinding Halt, Publisher. Reading, UK: no date, perhaps early 1980, based on a review of the Ramones "End of the Century" album. Side stapled format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. Front cover printed in red and black with a photo of the Ramones. 23 numbered pages. Black and white photos throughout, as well as a punk/new wave themed crossword puzzle. A zine offering somewhat acerbic look at the punk scene, focusing primarily on interviews and record reviews. Interviews with the Ramones, The Boys, Toyah, The Shapes and others. VERY GOOD condition. Minor curling along the spine. Light toning. $80.00

[18] Grinding Halt. Number 7.

Captain Callous; Eddie Snide; Pig Ignorant. Grinding Halt, Publisher. Reading, UK: no date, perhaps 1980. Side stapled format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. Front cover printed in blue and black. 24 numbered pages. Black and white photos throughout. Interviews, reviews or coverage of The Dead Kennedys, The Stranglers, UB40, Damned, the Specials, John Peel and others. VERY GOOD condition. Minor curling along the spine. Light toning. $80.00

[19] The Armagideon Times. #1.

No author given. No publisher, place or date, presumed London, 1979. Side stapled format on glossy style paper. 11  $\frac{3}{4}$  by 8  $\frac{3}{8}$  inches. 20 pages including covers. Black and white photos throughout, by Pennie Smith. First issue of this promotional fanzine issued by those associated with the Clash, featuring photos of the band, some lyrics, the story of the Clash, etc., including short handwritten anecdotes by band members. The fanzine was published by Kris Needs and Robin Banks, two associates/friends of the band and financed by CBS records (see Berniere and Primois, p. 229 for previous info). GOOD condition. Faint dark spotting and foxing along the top front cover, with minor general browning. Some wrinkling and creasing. Very slight musty odor when opened. \$100.00

[20] *The Armagideon Times. Number 2.

Needs, Kris; Banks, Robin (editors). No publisher, place or date, presumed London, 1979. Side stapled format on glossy style paper. 11 5/8 by 8 1/4 inches. 24 pages including covers. Black and white photos throughout, by Pennie Smith. Second issue of this promotional fanzine, with more info on the Clash and their associates, as well as many black and white photos of the band members. GOOD+ condition. Minor toning and soiling. Some creasing, wrinkling and curling. $100.00

[21] Safe As Milk. No. 3.

Various authors. Safe as Milk, Publisher. London: no date, presumed late 1970s/1980. Side stapled wraps, with an orange front wrap, perhaps missing the rear wrapper (if issued in the same color). 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 22 pp., including covers.

Black and white reproduced photos throughout. A somewhat straightforward take on the punk and new wave scene, with pieces on Shane McGowan, perhaps best known as the front man of the Pogues, although this interview discusses The Nipple Erectors, the first band he was in. With short pieces on the Clash, the Piranhas, Red Lights, Monitors and others. GOOD+ condition. General fading. Some curling, scuffing and creasing along the extremities. Faint diagonal crease to the rear cover. Very light soiling. $65.00

[22] Slash. August 1977. Volume 1 Number 3.

Samiof, Steven; Nissen, Melanie (editors). Various authors. Slash, Publisher. Los Angeles: 1977. Newspaper tabloid format. 32 pp, including covers. Black and white photos throughout. Approximately 15 by 11 ½ inches. Slash Magazine was a Los Angeles based fanzine, published from 1977-1980, and from which the record label Slash Records grew (Triggs, p. 66). Claude Bessy, a senior editor at Slash stated 'It started as a bluff, we were pretending there was an L.A. scene when there was no scene whatsoever. The magazine was it.' (Berniere and Primois p. 219). Issue three of this fanzine, featuring interviews with the Germs, the Zeros and the Mumps; many short record reviews, reviews of shows, etc. GOOD condition. Uneven vertical fold crease present. Moderate uneven browning to the paper. Minor soiling. A few small tears and chips present along the extremities. Minor wrinkling. $100.00

[23] Search and Destroy. New Wave Cultural Research.
Number 1. 1977

Ginsberg, Allen; Vale, V. et al. San Francisco: Search and Destroy, Publisher, 1977. Newspaper/tabloid format. 17 1/2 by 11 1/2 inches. With a center horizontal fold crease. 16 pp. Black and white photos and clip art throughout. Front page illustration of a pilot (wearing rather large safety pins). Variant issue lacking reddish printing on cover. Search and Destroy was founded and published by V. Vale in 1977 while working at City Lights Bookstore. Vale received initial donations from Allen Ginsberg and Lawrence Ferlinghetti to finance this zine that he hoped would be 'a clone of Andy Warhol's Interview' (see interview with V. Vale on Examiner website, July 2009). Mixing interviews, articles and photos, Search and Destroy presented well-written pieces documenting punk and new wave music and their accompanying aesthetic. Jello Biafra called Search and Destroy 'The greatest underground zine I've ever seen in my life.' (Berniere and Primois pp. 218-219). Search and Destroy evolved into RE/Search in 1980. First issue of this fanzine, featuring a review of a punk show in San Francisco at the 'Gabba-Hey Gardens;' an interview with the band Crime, a collage centerfold of various punk/new wave bands; 'The Politics of Punk' by Nico Ordway and a short piece by Allen Ginsberg on New Wave. VERY GOOD condition. Minor creasing and wrinkling. Horizontal fold crease present. $150.00

[24] Strangled Four. September 1977.

Various authors. Tony Moon, Strangled, publisher. London: 1977. Side folded wraps, illustrated with small clip art in collage format. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 32 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout. A British punk fanzine done in the style of Mark Perry's 'Sniffin Glue,' although perhaps without quite the artistic quality of 'Sniffin Glue.' Strangled was started by Tony Moon upon being asked by the Stranglers PR man Alan Edwards to produce a zine devoted to the group. It was published until 1996. Moon also founded the fanzine Sideburns. With articles on the Who, Lurkers and others, as well as other various topics. VERY GOOD condition. General fading to the piece, presumably from poor production quality. Minor browning along the spine. Light edgewear. (Poynor. Oh So Pretty: Punk in Print 1976-80. pp. 99 and 216). $75.00

[25] Strangled. Number 1 Volume 2. March, 1980.

Prior, Suzanne (compiler). Various authors. S.I.S/Strangled, publisher. London: 1980. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 32 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout. A later issue of this fanzine, devoted primarily the Stranglers, providing news on the band, information on their discography, etc. With a lengthy, somewhat philosophical article delving into the ideas of the Stranglers, and dispelling notions that fans (or those who were not fans) held of the group. VERY GOOD condition. Minor toning and wrinkling. $45.00

[26] Strangled. Number 2 Volume 2. May, 1980.

Prior, Suzanne (compiler). Various authors. S.I.S/Strangled, publisher. London: 1980. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 32 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout. More news and info on the Stranglers, providing news on the band, information on their discography, etc. VERY GOOD condition. Minor toning and wrinkling. $45.00

[27] Strangled. Numero 5. Mai 1980.

Archer, Chris (compiler). S.I.S. Publisher. Brussels: 1980. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 32 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout. All text in French. French language issue of this Stranglers-centric fanzine, printed in Belgium and containing the usual Stranglers news, as well as small pieces on Rainbow, Echo and the Bunnymen, the Distractions and others. VERY GOOD condition. Minor foxing to the lower front cover. Light toning and wrinkling. $45.00

[28] Mental Children. Issue Two. 1980.

Various authors. Mental Children, Publisher. No place: 1980. Side stapled format with a two tone color front cover. 11 ¾ by 8 ¼ inches. 22 pp. Black and white photos and clip art throughout. Second issue of this British fanzine, offering a review of the Clash film Rude Boy, as well as lengthy interviews with the Mo-Dettes and Siouxsie and the Banshees. VERY GOOD condition. Curling present along the spine. Staples rusted. Minor spotting and soiling. $50.00

[29] Pulled Up #2. Nov. 1980.

Duffy, Mick; Wilson, Billy; Cameron, Ian (Skid) et al. Pulled Up, Publisher. Corby, UK: 1980. Red, green and orange printed covers. 12 ½ by 8 ¾ inches. 20 pp., including covers. Black and white photos and illustrations throughout. Second issue of this punk/new wave fanzine using cut-up technique and text printed at various angles to present an aesthetically pleasing, albeit sometimes hard to follow, work. With coverage of the Ramones and U2 concerts, Ultravox, Tom Waits and others. GOOD condition. Heavy curling and creasing, mostly along the extremities. Minor general browning. A few faint stains and minor soiling present. A few tears along the bottom edge, with some chipping and tearing along the spine. $55.00

[30] I Wanna Be Your Dog. (Issue 5?). 1977.

Various authors. I Wanna Be Your Dog, Publisher. Paris, France/West Hollywood, CA: 1977. Semi-glossy wraps. 8 ¼ by 11 ¾ inches. 32 pp. Black and white photos and clip art throughout. A single issue of this music fanzine based in France, devoted to the 'underdogs and other strugglers, who are, as of yet, ignored by the giant corporations who make up the majority of the music business.' With news/coverage of the second Mont-de-Marsan festival (that featured the Clash, among others), the Dictators, the Doors, very brief mention (with photo) of Tom Petty, a centerfold of the Sex Pistols, etc. VERY GOOD condition.

Minor fading. A few small creases along the extremities. Light scuffing. Price sticker to the lower front cover. $60.00

[31] Kill It No. 1. For Snuffing Glue Freaks.

Lee, C.P. (Christopher Paul). C.P. Lee, Publisher. No place, presumed London, 1977. May be a circa 1977 reprint of the program (based on comments on the second page)

13 by 8 ½ inches. 8 pp. Poorly reproduced black and white photos throughout. A program guide, written in a zine style

format, to the “snuff rock” musical Sleak. Written by C.P.

Lee, a member of a comedy rock act, Alberto y lost Trios Paranoias.

The group parodied other bands and musicians, gaining in popularity and touring on their own. The musical Sleak lampooned the movie Snuff, and imagined punk bands that killed themselves on stage for their audience’s entertainment. The musical ran for a few months in London in 1977. GOOD condition.

Moderate wrinkling, curling and creasing to the piece, with some toning and soiling. Small M in ink to the upper front cover. Minor scattered soiling and staining. $100.00

[32] New York Rocker. Volume 1, Number 1. March 1976.

Blondie, and other various authors. New York Rocker, Publisher. New York: 1976. Side folding newspaper. 16 ¼ by 11 ¼ inches. 20 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout, including several by Lee Black Childers. The first issue of this newspaper style magazine, featuring an article on the Ramones, as well as others on Patti Smith, Tom Verlaine of Television, The Talking Heads, etc. The New York Rocker was started by Alan Betrock in 1976, with Andy Schwartz taking over in 1977. The paper mixed irony with more traditional rock journalism, with a focus on New York based musicians. (Berniere and Primois, p. 218). VERY GOOD condition. General browning to the paper. Horizontal fold crease present. $150.00

[33] New York Rocker. Volume 1, Number 2. March 1976.

Various authors. New York Rocker, Publisher. New York: 1976. Side folding newspaper. 16 ¼ by 11 ¼ inches. 24 pp., including covers. Black and white photos throughout, including several by Lee Black Childers. Second issue, featuring an interview with David Byrne of the Talking Heads, an article on the recording of the Ramones album, as well as commentary on their performances at CBGB's, an article on the New York Dolls, etc. With a centerfold photo spread by Lee Black Childers. VERY GOOD condition. General browning to the paper. Several small tears along the fore edge and spine. Horizontal fold crease present.

[60] March to Free the Pendleton 14 Flyer.

No author given. Issued by the Camp Pendleton 14 Defense Committee. 14 by 8 ½ inches. Printed on blue paper. Double sided, one side in English, one in Spanish. March to Free the Pendleton 14 in large bold letters across the top, with a photo of some of the Pendleton 14 beneath. With short text regarding the trial and demands of the group hoping to free the service members imprisoned, as well as date and time of the march and map of the location. The Pendleton 14 were a group of African-American marines being tried for their actions in attempting to stop the KKK (Ku Klux Klan) activity and meetings being held at the marine Camp Pendleton. The group of African-American marines sought to stop a meeting of the KKK on November 13, 1976, attacking the suspected meeting and sending six white marines to the hospital. The group mistakenly attacked the wrong gathering, although a subsequent investigation found the Klan meeting was held in an adjoining room. The group was arrested for their actions, which served to highlight the fact that the US Department of Defense, from 1971 until that point, allowed the KKK to organize within the armed forces. The military did not prosecute the KKK members. (See the Black Scholar, April 1977 and the New York Times, January 9, 1977 for some of the previous historical information). GOOD condition. Horizontal fold crease present. Some wrinkling, creasing and a few small tears along the extremities. Light uneven toning. $100.00

[61] People United to Fight Oppression (sic). Free the Pendleton 14! Smash the Klan!

No author given. PUFO (People United to Fight Oppression), Publisher. San Diego: no date, ca 1977. Single sheet, folded into four pages. 8 ½ by 7 inches. With a few black and white photos. A piece issued by People United to Fight Oppression seeking support for the Pendleton 14 (see previous number for historical information), highlighting the Marine Corps covering for the Klan, as well as providing some history of the Ku Klux Klan. PUFO outlines the significance of the Pendleton Brothers case, as well as the 5 key slogans of the group. GOOD+ condition. Light toning. Some wrinkling, with a faint horizontal fold crease present.

$75.00

[62] History and Current State of the Case of the 14 Pendleton Brothers.

No author given. PUFO (People United to Fight Oppression), Publisher. San Diego: no date, ca 1977. Single sheet, yellow paper, 8 ½ by 11 inches. Printed on both sides.

Another piece highlighting the case against the Pendleton 14 and the presence of the Ku Klux Klan on the Marine Corps base Camp Pendleton, citing ongoing racism against African-American marines, Klan activities on the base, and the military cover-up. Issued by People United to Fight Oppression. VERY GOOD condition. Faint horizontal and vertical fold crease present. Faint wrinkling. $50.00
